

Maritime Travel Business Travel Management

Platinum member

News Flash

July 02, 2020

Travel Bubble Coming To Atlantic Canada July 3: An Atlantic Canada travel bubble has been confirmed and will begin July 3. Interprovincial travel will be allowed to happen between Nova Scotia, New Brunswick, Prince Edward Island and Newfoundland and Labrador without self-isolation.

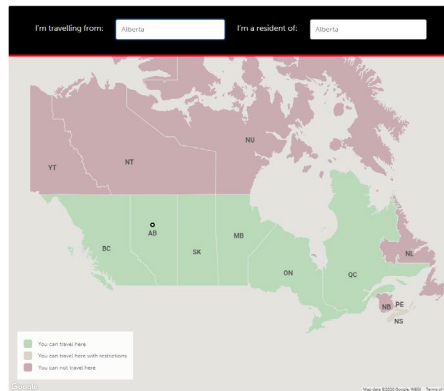

Canada Extends Ban On Most Foreign Travellers To At Least July 31: Ottawa has extended for at least another month a sweeping travel ban that bars entry to all travellers who are not Canadian citizens, permanent residents or people entering from the U.S. for "essential" reasons.

Canadians To Be Allowed Into EU Countries, But U.S. Citizens Shut Out: The European Union announced Tuesday that it will reopen its borders to travellers from 14 countries, but most Americans have been refused entry for at least another two weeks due to soaring coronavirus infections in the U.S.

Where Can I Travel Right Now?: Interactive Map to provide you with key travel information for destinations across Canada and beyond.

Air Canada Cancels 30 Domestic Routes, Closes 8 Stations At Regional Airports: Air Canada is indefinitely suspending service on 30 domestic regional routes and closing eight stations at regional airports across the country.

Westjet Releases July Schedule: WestJet has released its updated July schedule, supporting communities across the country in safely reopening travel and domestic tourism. In addition, the airline has added flights to select U.S. markets.

Maritime Travel – Return to Travel Roadmap: Maritime Travel has compiled a one-stop recourse for travel managers and travelers, offering accurate and up-to-date information on policies pertaining to all forms of travel. This online portal will consist of categories such as:

- General Information \(COVID-19\)
- Government Regulations
- Air Travel Regulations
- Hotel Updates
- Car & Ground Transportation

Resource Tip:

COVID-19 General Information: This page consists of health and safety guidelines from government and travel sources, along with restrictions and tips on combating travel woes during the pandemic. Organizations looking to restart travel and address common travel issues can access this information, along with updating internal travel policies and approvals. Please contact your dedicated Account Managers for more information on travel policies.

Please provide us with your feedback at btm@maritimetravel.ca.